

Sherry Ways Named One of Top 100 Designers in Washington, DC, by Home & Design Magazine

Washington, DC, March 31, 2011 - Interior designer Sherry Burton Ways of Kreative Ways, LLC (<http://www.kreativeways.com>), has been selected as one of the Top 100 Designers in the Washington, D.C., region by Home & Design Magazine. Five of her designs are featured in the Home & Design Portfolio for 2011. Ways' designs have also been featured in DC Luxury Magazine, the Washington Post and Washington's WUSA-TV Channel 9.

With a studio at 1341 H Street NE in Washington, Ways focuses on designing interiors that promote health and well-being, using principles of color therapy, Feng Shui and eco-friendly design. She also helps clients with real estate staging, accessorizing and special events decorating.

In addition to residential and commercial design services, Ways provides her clients with originally commissioned fine art, sculpture, furniture, accent pieces and accessories not available to the general public. She presents workshops and seminars on environmentally-friendly decorating and Feng Shui in the Baltimore-Washington area.

Three Workshops on Feng Shui

On April 20, Ways will offer a free introductory workshop on Feng Shui at the Watha T. Daniel-Shaw Neighborhood Library in Washington. She has scheduled two additional workshops April: at the Center for Green Urbanism in Washington on April 2 and at the Imagine Wellness and Yoga Center in Bowie, MD. on April 30. You can register online (<http://www.kreativeways.com/events.html>).

On May 15, Ways will make a special appearance at Critique Boutique (www.critiquemystyle.com) at the National Harbor from 2 to 6 p.m. She will show the dressing room she designed for this high-end clothing boutique and sign copies of the Home & Design Portfolio.
